

COVENANT OF MARRIAGE

A fictional example

NORA ELLIS

and

OWEN ELLIS

If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:12, World English Bible (2000)

On the twentieth day of June, two thousand twenty-six, we the undersigned witnesses attest that Nora Ellis and Owen Ellis made this covenant of marriage before us.

I, Nora, take you, Owen, to be my husband. You, our faith and our home are the best treasures of my life. I will share all of life with you, in joy and in sorrow, and be faithful to you in heart, word and deed.

I, Owen, take you, Nora, to be my wife. I will treasure you above all I possess, share my home and my burdens with you, and stay faithful to you until death parts us.

Together we promise to keep this covenant with patience and kindness.
